
Positive answer change = better judged harmlessness. Separate y-scales; zero = untuned base.
Behavioral pairs use the same question in the tuned and base models; eligibility can vary by condition. SD is not a confidence interval.